

ROOFPAC's Sporting Clays Tournament 2010

Sponsored by Johns Manville

Sunday, Feb. 21, 2010

2:30 p.m. High Point Shooting Grounds

Come one come all—advanced, intermediate and beginner shooters are invited to participate in ROOFPAC's Sporting Clays Tournament 2010! The High Point Shooting Grounds facility is the oldest sporting clay range in Louisiana. High Point Shooting Grounds offers two sporting clay fields, five-stand sporting, two FITASC courses and a 90-foot tower. It is also fully automated. Participants will shoot 50 targets with instructions from a certified instructor, and the facility will furnish participants with guns, ammunition, and eye and ear protection. Lunch and transportation will be provided by NRCA. Tickets are $250 per participant and are ROOFPAC contributions.

PARTICIPANTS

To participate in the tournament, you must have a ROOFPAC authorization card on file. Please indicate your status by checking the appropriate box and returning this form.
